

Seventh International Workshop on Comparative Survey Design and Implementation www.csdiworkshop.org

Current List, in Alphabetical Order, of Papers Accepted for Presentation
Updated Feb 1st 2010

Lausanne, March 25-27, 2010
Hosted by Université Lausanne & FORS

This is a list of the papers accepted for presentation.

Other contributions, including reports on research projects, on guidelines, on work group projects and on planned activities and publications have still to follow. The program will be finalized the coming weeks and posted on the CSDI-website. We will notify you when it is posted.

Kirsten Alcser & Grant Benson - Implementing a Data Collection Quality Profile for Cross-National Surveys

Safaa Amer - Is it culturally Ethical? On Standards to Shield Human Participants' Rights and Research Ethics

Bashir Hassan, Athar Osama & Charles T. Kent- Socio-Economic Impact of ICTs: Learning from the Emerging Markets

Dorothee Behr - Translation Evaluation in the Team Translation Approach

Bill Blyth - ISO Survey Research Standards

Michael Braun - Enhancing the Validity of Intercultural Comparative Surveys - The Use of Probing Techniques in Internet Surveys

Eldad Davidov & Alain de Beuckelaer - Testing the Equivalence of an Instrument to Assess Schwartz's Human Values: How Harmful are Translations?

Lauren Doerr - Data Collection, Quality Control and Context

Brita Dorer - Advance Translation in the European Social Survey (ESS) Round 5, 2010

Guy Elcheroth, Sandra Penic, Francesco Lagana and Dominique Joye - Methodological Nationalism in Comparative Survey Research and Strategies to Overcome it

Rory Fitzgerald - Navigating the Compendium of Competing Measurement Requirements in a Cross-national Time Series: A Quality Monitoring and Enhancement Framework for the European Social Survey

Peter Granda - Discrete vs. Continuous. The Transition in Data Processing Systems - How Continuous Interviewing Designs Encourage Changes in the Post Data Collection Stage of the Survey Data Life Cycle.

Janet Harkness – Types of Translation for Surveys?

Dominique Joye – On the Survey Climate in Switzerland

Brian Kleiner & Isabelle Renschler - Mapping the Linguistic Terrain: Languages and Dialects of National Surveys

Oliver Lipps & Alexandre Pollien - Effects of Interviewer Experience on Components of Nonresponse in the European Social Survey

Lars Lyberg – Survey Process Quality for 3MC Surveys

Davide Lubian - On Branching of Attitudinal Items? Theoretical and Methodological Implications

Kirsten Miller – Report on Comparative Cognitive Pretesting Project

Zeina Mneimneh - Interview Privacy in Cross-Cultural Survey Research: The World Mental Health Survey Experience

Peter Mohler – Quantitative and Qualitative Item Quality Assessment in 3m Surveys

Beth-Ellen Pennell – Cross-Cultural Survey Guidelines

Emilia Peytcheva - A Framework for the Effect of Language of Survey Administration on the Response Formation Processes

Alisú Schoua-Glusberg - Adding Quality Assurance Steps to the Survey Process: Adapting International Standards to Surveys in the Republic of Georgia

Tom Smith - Applying the Multi-level Integrated Database Approach (MIDA) across Countries

Susan Sprachman, Kathy Bueck, Jane Shore & Jennifer Lentini - Quality Assurance When Assessments are Conducted in Many Languages or Dialects: When is it Okay to Call an “H” Ehsh, Heche, or Aych?

Ineke Stoop, Comparative Analysis of Nonresponse bias

Christopher Ward, Felicia LeClere, Pamela Smock, Lynette Hoelter, Peter Granda & James Lepkowski, - Decomposition of Error Introduced by Ex-Post Harmonization